Lockers

Evidence is a crucial component needed for taking a case from collar to conviction. The chain of custody must be preserved and the integrity of evidence protected.

Our evidence lockers provide the utmost security and integrity of evidence preservation and retrieval.

As the preferred choice of law enforcement agencies across North America, we ensure your evidence is secure. And your chain of custody – uncompromised.

PERSONAL LOCKER STORAGE

Officers have a safe, secure place for each piece of equipment they carry while out on the job. When they return from their shift, their gear should be safely stored the same way. Our line of personal storage lockers has a range of options for storing boots, vests, uniforms, personal items, and belts, and can be configured and customized to match each officer's personal storage needs.

ASSET MANAGEMENT & TRACKING

Simple and affordable to use for all types of assets:

- Evidence
- Weapons
- Folders & Binders
- Medical Samples
- Safety Equipment
- Lab Equipment
- IT Assets
- Safety Equipment
- Stolen Property

Manage and control any unique assets stored in your facilities. Our barcode and/or RFID solutions can provide the right tracking and management system to bring accountability to your organization. Designated storage locations and validated put-aways ensure you always know where your items are and who has them.

WEAPONS STORAGE

Weapons rack storage needs to be safe, accessible, and customized for the specific needs of your facility. That's why we offer a line of weapons storage solutions to suit all your different needs.

We offer a wide range of secure weapons storage solutions including static weapons racks, sally port gun lockers, universal weapons racks, universal expeditionary weapons storage systems, and modular weapons storage systems.
